D Read the description of Karen's family and circle the correct words.

Hello, my name's Karen and this is my family.

I'm twelve years old and I have got two brothers and a sister. I love dancing! I (1) now / usually go to dancing lessons (2) this morning / at the weekends. But (3) this / every weekend we are going on holiday to Greece. Our cousins live there!

My cousins, Yiannis and Melissa, are great fun. They (4) today / always make me laugh. We love swimming, so we (5) never / sometimes go to the beach.

My mum and dad love Greece, too. They take us there (6) every summer / at the moment.

We've also got a pet lizard called Jason, but you can't see him in this photo! He's very small.

Remember.

We use these adverbs of frequency with the Present Simple: always, usually, often, sometimes, never.

We use these time expressions with the Present Simple: every day/week/weekend/spring/summer/autumn/winter, once a week/month/year, at the weekends.

We use these time expressions with the Present Continuous: this morning/spring/summer/autumn/winter, next week/month/year, now, at the moment, today, tomorrow.
